

Dear Final Table patrons, friends, and supporters, as of March 3, 2017, we will be raising the price of our daily club entry fee from $10 to $15. We have waited to raise our fee for as long as we could, but it has become apparent to ownership and management that doing so is necessary if we are going to continue to keep our doors open and to resist efforts to end social gaming poker in Portland. We understand that a $15 cover fee makes some tournaments less appealing, so we will be working to restructure the buy ins and schedules of our tournaments. We started our club nearly five years ago because of our love for poker, and we have been thrilled to see the game flourish in this city as much as it has. However, we also never expected to face as many challenges as we have either. Nonetheless, we will continue to strive to provide you with a safe, fun, and honest place to play the game that we all love so much. Thank you for your continued support.

In other news, we are happy to announce that March XX will also mark the start of a second four event joint poker tournament with Portland Meadows. We have listened to your feedback (most of which was highly positive) about our last joint event and will be making some changes this time around. To minimize the fatigue that comes from playing a four-day event, we will instead spread the four tournament events over two weekends. The Final Table will host the first event on Friday, March 3rd, 2017 Portland Meadows will host the second event on Saturday, March 4, 2017 The Final Table will host the third event on Friday, March 10, 2017 and Portland Meadows will host the final event and trophy presentation on Saturday, March 11, 2017. More details on the actual structure of the events are forthcoming.
